

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, In 1944, Jerry Burnett joined the IAMAW organization and held various offices in his local lodge; and,

WHEREAS, Jerry became a full-time Grand Lodge Representative on August 1, 1953, he has served Aberdeen and Watertown, South Dakota, and Cando and Fargo, North Dakota, and has worked with many lodges throughout the United States; and,

WHEREAS, Jerry has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Jerry was instrumental in teaching Local Lodge 862 the right from wrong in working with management people, no matter what the consequences; and,

WHEREAS, Jerry is a devoted husband to his wife, Mildred, and a good father to their four children; and,

WHEREAS, On April 21, in Aberdeen, South Dakota, a retirement party for Jerry Burnett, combined with an awards banquet for union members for years of service in the IAMAW, will be held; and,

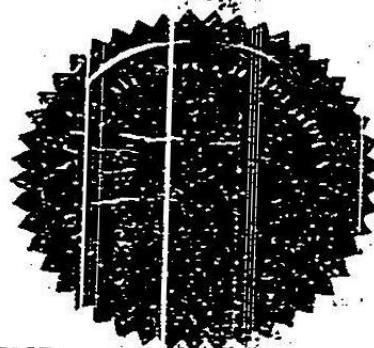

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this good friend to South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 21, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him an enjoyable retirement with his family at his lake home and good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
